The Glengyle sailed from Shanghai for London on November 25. She was last reported at Singapore on December 6. Her route would take her through the Suez Canal and the Mediterranean, and it may be assumed she was sunk in the Mediterranean, as were the Persia, Ville de la Ciotat, Yasaka Maru, and several other sleamships.

The Glengyle was one of the largest steamships which have been sunk since the activity of submarines in the Mediterranean became pronounced. Her gross tonnage was 9,395. She was owned by the Glen Line of Glascow, and was the largest steamship in

The Glengyle has been in service only a comparatively short time having been built at New Castle in 1914. She was five hundred feet long, 62 feet beam and 34 feet deep. Her master was Captain Webster.

NO EXTRA

SESSION OF LEGISLATURE

Columbus, O., Jan. 3.-Expressing his belief that the people of Ohio want a period of rest from legislation, Governor Willis is. sued a formal statement this afternoon unnouncing definitely that ie will not call an extra session of the legislature,

The statement was drawn out as a result of many petitions to the governor from individuals and various organizations urging that an extra session be called for the purpose of submitting a constitutional amendment providing for classification of property for purposes of taxation. Many protests against calling an extra session also had been lodged with the governor.

Washington, D. C. Jan. 3. -The International crisis brought on by the Teutonia submarine campaign in the Mediterranean moved forward swiftly today and was marked by several outstanding developments.

President Wilson has cut short his honeymoon at Hot Springs, Virginia, and will leave there tonight, arriving in the capitol early tomorrow to take personal charge of the situation.

Baron Zwiedenik, charge of the American embassy, assured Secretary Lansing that should it be found an Austrian submarine sunk the Persia with loss of American life, his government would promptly make reparation satisfaction. He asked that judgment be suspended until all the facts were Known.

There seemed to be a growing impression in official quarters that tomorrow the president may call the congress leaders together and acquaint them fully about the situation.

The state department ed Ambassador Pentield at Vi-enna to make inquiries for infor-mation to determine the nation-ality of the submarine and in any event develop the facts in the

CATCHES ANOTHER 'POSSUM IN CITY

Lew Gilgen, of the firm of Gilgen & Balmert has just caught his fourth opossum of the season back of their liquor store on Gallia atreet. Lew captured the opossum in the rear yard. Like the three previous ones it was joing which leads Lew to believe it was one of the young belonging to an old mother opossum that Lew had a year ago and which escaped. They probably have had a roosting place under stables in the immediate vicinity ever since.

Take a glass of Salts to flush out your Kidneys and neutralize irritating acids.

Kidney and Bladder weakness result from uric acid, says a noted antioprily. The kidneys filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it often renewins to irritate and inflame, causing a burning, soulding sensation, on setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to sack relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread, the water passes sometimes with a scalding censation and is very profuse; again, there is difficulty in avoiding it.

Illadder weakness, most folks call it, because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is really one of the meet simple ailments to overcome. Get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmosics and take a table-spoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, continue this for two or three days. This will neutralize the acida in the urine so it no langer is a source of irritation to the bladder and uricary or gans which then act normally again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are ashject to urinary disorders caused by uric acid irritation. Jad Salts is splendid for kidneys and causes no bad effects whatever.

Here you have a pleasant, efforwescent lithia-water drink, which quickly relieves bladder trouble.

HOW SODOM WAS DESTROYED

There is a colored evengella preveling about the country who advertising himself as the "Blath Billy Sunday." His name is the Ber, Alexander Willbanks, and his home is in Washington, D. C. The Reverent Alexander is now holding a revival in St. Louis and he is quoted by an exchange as giving this illuminating and graphic description of the burning of Solom. There is a touch of resilem in the description that ought to have appealed strongly to the benighted St. Louis citizens who heard the sermon. Here is an abstract:

"Abraham was sitting in his tent door on the plains of Manne, with the salubrious breeze blowing about him, and the force getting ready to leave their holes and the everianting stars about to come out, when angels appeared to Abraham and he gave them meat. Then they went away, and the Lord told him he was going to burn up Sodom and Gemorrah.

The Lord said that if there were fifty righteous persons there he would not. Abraham girded up his itons and started run-ning through the city, but he couldn't find them. He asked one

" 'Say, mister, are you e Christian!'

"'Hay, mister, are you a Correction!"
"'Me a Christian! I should say not—I'm a gambler,' that wholed man answered.

"Abraham then went down a side street, where he heard ragtime played by a plane, and asked a woman if she was righteous.

"'Say, man, what do you think this is! This is the red hot district.' And he didn't find no righteons there.

"Then the Lord said if there were forty he wouldn't destroy the city, then thirty, then twenty; then ten. Abraham was bound to find at least ten righteous, so he ran through the town.

"Some of the folks laughed at that good man as he tried to save 'em, just at they laugh at ministers today; but the Lord had and he was tryin' to save the wicked sinners.

'He ran into a gambling den, just like they use to have in St. Louis, and said:

"Is there any righteous here?"

"But they laughed at him. 'Gee, that fellow's bughouse,' one of 'em said. But don't you think Abraham was bughouse. He knew what he was doin.' But he couldn't find the righteous, so he went back to his tent on the plains of Mamre, where the salu-Then two angels appeared to Lot as he sat in the gate

Sodom. Zephyrs were being wafted pleasantly about and all was peaceable and quiet. Old Sol had hid himself for the night, and beautoous Venus had unveiled her face to the plains of men. And Lot took the angels in and he gave them meat. And the angels told him to pack up and fly away, because God was going to burn

"Lot started to get his goods ready, then he went out to his sons-in-laws, but they were triffing fellows, just like the boys you see hanging around St. Louis poolrooms and saloons. He looked in all the good places first, like the churches and the banks, but they weren't there. "Then he went down to a gambling den, and there sat his sons-in-law playing cards.

"'Up, get you out of this place, for the Lord will destroy this city,' he told 'em.

"The crowd that was sittin' around the eard table guffawed, and said to one of the sons: "Say, what's the matter with the old

"And one of 'em answered, 'Aw, don't pay no attention to him. He's looney, he is.' And the other answered: 'Go on home, ole man, you've got a tech of the heat.' "And Lot went back home, kinda sorrowful like, just like we ministers do when we can't get you sinners to come to church. So he and his wife packed up, just like this, and trotted off, just like Here he put a large Bible over his shoulder, and trutted back forth over the platform, while the congregation shoulds.

"But Lot's wife, she had a woman's curiosity, and she kept a-tayin' she wanted to look back, and lot kept a-tellin' ner to keep her eyes to the front. Finally she took just one little peep, and then the Lord He turned her into a great hig pillar of salt. that's just what He did, brethren.

"Then the Lord out loose the brimstone and fire, and he learnt up these two wicked cities."

Rheumatism is a direct result of eating too much neat and other rich foods that produce uric acid which is absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out in the urine; the pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity. In damp and chilly cold weather the skin pores are closed thus forcing the kidneys to do double work, they become weak and sluggist and fail to eliminate the uric acid, which keeps accumulating and circulating the Mehikan Beared peetly mee and he singers, cortaces and pain called rheumatism.

HOW SODOM WAS DESTROYED

There is a colored evangelist traveling about the country who is advertising himself as the "Black Billy Sunday." His name is the Rev. Alexander Willbanks, and his home is in Washington, D. C. The Reverend Alexander is now holding a revival in St. Louis and he is quoted by an exchange as giving this illuminating and graphic description of the burning of Sodom. There is touch of realism in the description that ought to have appealed strongly to the benighted St. Louis citizens who heard the sermon. Here is an abstract:

Abraham was sitting in his tent door on the plains of Mamre, with the salubrious breeze blowing about him, and the foxes getting ready to leave their holes and the everlasting stars about to come out, when angels appeared to Abraham and he gave them meat. Then they went away, and the Lord told him he was going to burn up Sodom and Gomorrah.

The Lord said that if there were fifty righteous there he would not. Abraham girded up his lions and started run-ning through the city, but he couldn't find them. He asked one

"'Say, mister, are you a Christian!'
"'Me a Christian!' I should say not-I'm a gambler,' that wicked man answered.

"Abraham then went down a side street, where he heard ragtime played by a piano, and asked a woman if she was righteous ay, man, what do you think this is? This is the red hot 'And he didn't find no righteous there.

"Then the Lord said if there were forty he wouldn't destroy city, then thirty, then twenty; then ten. Abraham was bound

'Some of the folks laughed at that good man as he tried to save 'em, just as they laugh at ministers today; but the Lord had spoken, and he was tryin' to save the wicked sinners.

"He ran into a grambling den, just like they use to have in St. Louis, and said:

"Is there any righteous here?"
"But they laughed at him. Gee, that fellow's bughouse," one of 'em said. But don't you think Abreham was bughouse. He knew what he was doin." But he couldn't find the righteous, so he went back to his tent on the plains of Mamre, where the salubrious breezes blew.

"Then two angels appeared to Lot as he sat in the gate of Sodom. Zephyrs were being wulted pleasantly about and all was peaceable and quiet. Old Sol had hid himself for the night, and leanteous Venus had unveiled her face to the plains of men. And but took the angels in and he gave them meat. And the angels told him to pack up and fly away, because God was going to burn

"Int started to get his goods ready then he went out to his sons in laws, but they were trifling fellows, just like the boys you see hanging around St. Louis poolrooms and saloons. He looked in all the good places first, like the churches and the banks, but

"Then he went down to a gambling den, and there sat his sons-in-law playing cards.

"'lip, got you out of this place, for the Lord will destroy city,' he told 'em."'The crowd that was sittin' around the card table guffawed, and said to one of the sons: 'Say, what's the matter with the old guy? "And one of 'em answered, 'Aw, don't pay no attention to him. He's looney, he is.' And the other answered: 'Go on home, de man, you've got a tech of the heat.'

"And Lot went back home, kinda sorrowful like, just like wi ministers do when we can't get you sinners to come to church. So he and his wife packed up, just like this, and trotted off, just like

Here he put a large Bible over his shoulder, and trotted back and forth over the platform, while the congregation shouted.

"But Lat's wife, she had a woman's cariosity, and she kept a-sayin' she wanted to look back, and Lat kept a-tellin' her to keep her eyes to the front. Finally she took just one little peep, and then the bord He turned her into a great big pillar of salt—that's just what Ho did, brethren.

Then the Lord cut loose the brimstone and fire, and he burnt up those two wicked cities."

We have had some great lovers of civil service around these parts. Sometimes we have thought it only skin deep, those on he inside shouting praises and those wanting to get in, damning it. Anyway, we refused to get excited over the contest for the position of fire chief. Mr. McOuat was admittedly conscientious, carnest, faithful and capable in the discharge of his duties. The 'reasons'' upon which he was asked to resign were trivial and unsuportant, even if true. But we refuse to get excited, as we said before because two years ago, Mr. McOnat went into office by easting another man, Mr. Hancock, who also had made a good fire chief, and who was ousted on charges as inconsequential as those a leged against McOunt. And so long as people allow the fire de-Partment of Portsmouth to be a pawn in the political game, so bug will we have the spectacle of ripping things up with each ange of administration. In two years, should Mr. Kaps be raten, Mr. Koerner will go, even as Hancock and McOuat went. It's part of the political game, as it is played down here, and shat are laws when politicians want jobs?

NOT THE ONE TO WATCH

A contributor in the Indianapolis News says it is not the girl A contributor in the indinappoint years says it is not the girl who does tomboy "stands" whom you want to watch. "Good little Jane, who blushes if you look at her, is much more likely to do something wrong." And, verily, the contributor thus reveals his understanding of human nature—girl nature as well as boy nature

Little Johnny of the sad eyes and angelic disposition is much more likely to rob a bank twenty years hence than is Bill of the freekles, who sees the humor of putting a bent pin under the Sunday school teacher, just as is demure Jane more likely to bring sor-row to the home than is reckless Kate, who learns early in life to take care of herself physically, mentally—and morally—Columbus Dispatch.

Joe Bouzo developed into a good policeman. He had his own rny about doing things, he sometimes may have jarred the sensibilities of some citizens, but he certainly saw to it that the law was obeyed on his beat. It is to be regretted that the Kaps administration selected Bonzo as one of the police officers to lose out. It could only have been done as a partisan measure, and not through any lereliction of duty on the part of Mr. Bonzo.

To our notion better tribute could not be paid to a good oman than that voiced in this paragraph taken from a sketch of the life of the late Susannah Wynn, who died at Piketon, the other day: "She did not believe in emotionalism. She despised hypocritical pretensions as she observed in her later years, and she devoted her life to the simple religion, the Golden Bule, "Do unto others as you would have others do unto you."

"Mme. Schwimmer in the Gardon of Eden!" pathetically obrves the paragrapher of the Ohio State Journal of one of the militant members of the Ford peaceifiers. Cheer up old man. She wouldn't stay there very long. She'd have that tree of forbidden ruit chopped down, torn up by the roots and feeding a bunfire before you could put a smidgeon of a brilliant thought on paper.

There was a lesson to advertisers in the unswers to the problem presented by Judge Thomas, details of which were printed in last Friday's Times. The sections from which answers came shows that The Times covers thoroughly this part of Ohio. People read The Times every day, and they read it thoroughly. One reason is that effort is made to have every page attractive.

But then just because they didn't start off is no reason why they won't be in when the crumbs begin to fall. At least that is what their friends are saying.
